

Archives and Records Association (UK & Ireland)
Community Archives & Heritage Group

12th Annual Conference, Tuesday 10 July 2018

Co-hosted with

Birmingham City University, Centre for Media & Cultural Research

Conflict, Protest & Reconciliation

The theme of this year's Community Archives conference is conflict, protest and reconciliation. Speakers will explore how different archives collect and preserve the materials of conflict, protest and social movements and what these archives tell us about history, people and communities who live through such times.

Programme

9.45-10.15	Registration and coffee
10.20	Welcome	Member of UCL
10.25	Keynote speaker:	Maggie Andrews University of Worcester https://www.worcester.ac.uk/discover/professor-maggie-andrews.html Potatoes & Plums: the role of communities in placing the home into the history of the First World War Home Front
11.00	Jon Elliott and Jack Latimer	Introducing the GDPR and what it means for community archives and local history groups.
11.30	Awards Awards Presentation	Awards presented by Nick Barratt
11.45	Overall Award Winner
12.00	Category Award Winners
12.30	Lunch
13.30	CAHG AGM	CAHG chair

13.40	Faisal Hussain and Izzy Mohammed	Asian Youth Culture Project: http://www.asianyouthculture.co.uk/#
14.00	Gary Stewart	Recognize Black Heritage and Culture - Yesterday, Today, Tomorrow http://www.recognizeonline.com
14.25	Kiran Sohorta	Muslim Soldiers in the First World War http://www.birminghammuseums.org.uk/blog/posts/first-world-war-muslim-soldiers-are-focus-of-new-bmag-exhibition
14.50	Rachel Gillies	Woman's History Birmingham Project https://www.womenshistorybham.org.uk
15.15	Concluding words
15.30	Close

CAHG is a Special Interest Group of ARA (UK & Ireland)

Archives & Records Association
UK & Ireland